COMMENTS:

Hello my name is Chad Kereluk, I am a member of the non-profit organization Bikers Against Child Abuse here in Saskatoon.

Over the last few years we at BACA had been searching around for ways to bring awareness to child sexual, physical, and emotional abuse that exist here in Saskatoon and in our surrounding communities.

After talking with hundreds of people about having the month of August declared as child abuse awareness month, most could not believe that nothing like this exist here in Saskatoon, and all would support this effort.

With a such a campaign this would empower many children, parents, and guardians to come forward with their dark secrets of abuse and in a perfect world their abuser will answer to the courts for the childhoods they had stolen.

We need as a community to protect the children of our city from the predators that unfortunately live with or have access to our children.

With the city council on board making the month of August child abuse awareness month we as a whole can change lives of so many victims by helping them understand that what happened to them was wrong and not their fault.

On behalf of all the victims of child abuse and all the good men and women fighting child abuse please make August child abuse awareness month and together as a community we can break the chains of abuse.

we have 5 BACA speakers

Respectfully
Chad (tap) Kereluk

Member of Bikers Against Child Abuse
