3 Reason for Appeal: (Supporting documents required)

Forgiveness of the outstanding indebtedness under the City's mortgage can be the subject of appeal to The City Mortgage Appeals Board where the owner must sell the mortgaged property due to any of the following:

- Job Transfer or change of employment involving a move out of the City
- Death of a signatory
- Marriage Breakdown
- Any other unanticipated event, which in the Board's view would make it fair and reasonable to forgive the indebtedness under the mortgage (e.g. serious illness, loss of employment)

Explain: _____

*Please note, you will be required to provide written evidence to verify your reason for appeal, for submission to the Board along with your application for the hearing, (example: letter from employer to the Board indicating start date of job transfer and information from applicant on date of move out of Saskatoon, or letter from lawyer containing date of legal separation, or death certificate of signatory, or letter from doctor regarding serious illness, or letter from employer providing date of loss of employment.)

Signed: _____
