

History and Duties of Saskatoon Municipal Heritage Advisory Committee, as well a list of those organizations with a representative on the Committee:

The Municipal Heritage Advisory Committee was established on June 12, 1981 by Bylaw No. 6111.

The Municipal Heritage Advisory Committee (MHAC) is an advisory body of concerned citizens that are appointed by City Council to advise City Council on various matters relating to heritage, as outlined under the Aims & Duties.

The Municipal Heritage Advisory Committee submits an annual report on its activities to City Council through the Planning and Operations Committee, and the most recent report is posted on the Committee's Web Page.

The Municipal Heritage Advisory Committee also submits a detailed budget request to the Planning and Operations Committee for review and approval prior to the request being placed in the Operating Budget estimates for review by the Budget Committee.

Aims & Duties:

To provide advice to City Council:

- On any matter arising out of The Heritage Property Act or the regulations thereunder and on the Civic Heritage Policy.
- On any changes to the criteria for evaluation of properties of architectural or historical value or interest with respect to heritage designation.
- With respect to revisions to the list of properties, sites, buildings and areas worthy of conservation as set out in The Holding Bylaw No. 6770 or under the heritage database.
- On buildings, properties and artifacts to be designated under The Heritage Property Act or placed on the Community Heritage Register.
- On policies related to conserving heritage properties and areas.
- On current heritage conservation legislation and to recommend proposed changes to municipal legislation to conserve heritage properties and areas.
- On ways to increase public awareness and knowledge of heritage conservation issues.
- On any other matters relating to buildings and areas of architectural or historical significance.
- On properties and artifacts owned by the City.
- To prepare and update, in consultation with the Administration, a brochure and/or information on the City's web site describing the Committee's mandate, membership, qualifications, recent activities, regular meeting schedule and how the public can contact the Committee.

The Committee may also provide education and awareness programs, subject to budget limitations, and in consultation with Administration.
