

Cultural Diversity and Race Relations

March is “Cultural Diversity and Race Relations Month in Saskatoon!”

Our office is now proactively coordinating to gather different activities that will take place in our community in observance to this particular occasion. A printed listing of events will be available for distribution to the public and will also be posted in the city’s webpage www.saskatoon.ca. This printed material celebrates our many community partners’ efforts during the month of March. If your community group, large or small has any upcoming event(s) and would like the rest of Saskatoon to know about it, please send us the information. This listing will be a source of events or activities that contribute to greater harmony and understanding among cultures in our city.

To have your event(s) included, please call 975-3378 or fax 975-2324.
