

PERMIT TYPES

Permit Types	Description
Development Permit	A permit for site improvements / alterations that DO NOT include the construction of a building*
Site Plan Control Permit	A permit for commercial development within an area designated as Regional Commercial Area in the Official Community Plan and that is not part of a Direct Control District. This permit is required prior to applying for a building and development permit.

*If the scope of work includes the construction of a building, please visit building and development permit for further information on obtaining a building and development permit.