

Bursary Application

The City of Saskatoon Bursary Program exists to provide financial incentives for potential fitness leaders to obtain certification that is recognized through the National Fitness Leadership Alliance (NFLA). Currently the City of Saskatoon and Neighborhood Community Associations accepts the following fitness agency certifications: SPRA, YWCA, YMCA, CALA.

The Bursary Program does not fund retroactive courses (i.e. You may not apply for funding after taking a leadership certification course).

Application Procedures:

1. Applicants must provide the Selection Committee with:
 - a. An application form
 - b. Copy of Standard First Aid & CPR – Level A or C
2. Successful applicants must pay 100% of the course registration fee upfront. Upon completion of the terms and conditions outlined in the Commitment Contract, the registration fee will be paid in full by the City of Saskatoon (upon receipt of registration receipts).
3. Successful applicants are required to attend training courses in the bursary application season. Please refer to the training schedule below to ensure you are available for these training sessions.
4. The applicant is responsible for the completion of Standard First Aid and CPR. (The Bursary Program does not cover these costs).
5. Should an applicant not meet minimum requirements for the Exercise Theory exam and/or practicums, the fee for a re-write/test is the sole responsibility of the applicant.
6. Should an applicant not meet minimum requirements for the Exercise Theory, Group or Aqua Exercise modules, and/or mentoring program, the agreement will be terminated.
7. Applicants may re-apply for the bursary training program one year from the unsuccessful course date.
