Thursday, August 2	7:00 - 9:00 PM	Turning the Tide Bookstore: Book Launch - Suffer the Little Children with Tamara Starblanket Please join author Tamara Starblanket for the launch of her book "Suffer the Little Children: Genocide, Indigenous Nations and the Canadian State." This book tackles one of the most compelling issues of our time - the crime of genocide - and whether in fact it can be said to have occurred in relation to the many Original Nations on Great Turtle Island now claimed by a state called Canada. It has been hailed as ground-breaking by many Indigenous and other scholars engaged with this issue, impacting not just Canada but states worldwide where entrapped Indigenous nations face absorption by a dominating colonial state. Location: 615 Main Street Facebook: https://www.facebook.com/events/204548146901157/	Peter Garden: petergarden@turing.ca RSVP on Facebook

Saturday, August 11	2:00 - 5:00 PM 2:30 PM Solidarity Walk 3:00-5:00 PM Tea Service	Sheikh Family: Neighbours Without Borders Neighbours without borders is a one-time public action taking place in response to the hate crime inflicted against a Muslim man, 66-year old Abu Sheikh, as he was leaving prayer service at his mosque, and walking to his home. We are standing together to show that racism and hate crimes do not have a place in Canada and Saskatoon. This elder must see that the community is here for him. For that reason, we will be walking from the mosque He prays at, to his home, and then to the neighbouring Grosvenor Park to have a traditional tea service. Bring your smiles, and your Readiness to have laughs and hugs with delicious tea. Location: Grosvenor Park (on Copland Cres) Facebook: https://www.facebook.com/events/2099864906923621/	Aisha Sheikh: 646-266-9077 nwbcana@gmail.com
