CALL FOR APPLICATIONS
SASKATOON PUBLIC LIBRARY BOARD

Who We Are
The Saskatoon Public Library (SPL) is a statutory board, whose vision is to change lives through lifelong learning, community connections, engagement and inclusivity.

The SPL Board governs our municipal library system, ensuring programs and services reflect community needs. If you value inclusion, Indigenous perspectives, and intellectual freedom—we want to hear from you.

The SPL Board fills a governance role for the municipal library system as outlined in The Public Libraries Act, and is responsible for ensuring that library programs, services and facilities meet the needs of the residents of Saskatoon today and in the future.

Seeking Skilled and Connected Leaders
We’re looking for individuals with diverse backgrounds, experiences, and strong community connections to help guide Saskatoon’s public library system.

We welcome applications from individuals who have a variety of experiences and backgrounds and represent the full range of visible and nonvisible diversity of people living in Saskatoon.

Ideal SPL Board candidates bring personal integrity, curiosity, and a commitment to inclusion and lifelong learning. Applicants should have:

- Knowledge of library services
- A valid library card
- Strong listening and analytical skills
- Openness to change and collaboration
- Accountability and mentorship
- A long-term vision for public service

To meet current needs, we’re especially interested in candidates with experience or connections in one or more of the following:

- Indigenous communities & Truth and Reconciliation
- Arts and literary sectors
- Early childhood literacy
- Fund development & capital campaigns
- Capital project planning
- Financial or legal expertise

Time Commitment
The SPL Board meets eight times per year, typically on the third Wednesday at 4:00 p.m., excluding July, August, and December, unless urgent decisions are required. Additional meetings and committee work may be scheduled. Board positions are volunteer-based and unpaid.

How to Apply
Submit your application/résumé/reference letters by 5:00 p.m. on Friday, October 3, 2025. City Council will consider its appointments on December 17, 2025, Regular Business Meeting and all applicants will be notified afterward. Visit saskatoon.ca/boards.

Note: Applications may be shared with current Board members during the review process.

For more information on the application process, contact the City Clerk’s Office at 306-975-3240 or email online.appointments@saskatoon.ca.

2026 CALL FOR APPLICATIONS
BOARD OF POLICE COMMISSIONERS

Who We Are
The Saskatoon Board of Police Commissioners (SBPC) is a statutory board responsible for overseeing the Saskatoon Police Service. It sets priorities, guides long-term planning, and connects public safety needs with policing services.

Through The Police Act, 1990, the Legislature of Saskatchewan has delegated the responsibility for providing police services, in the case of the City of Saskatoon, to the Saskatoon Board of Police Commissioners. City of Saskatoon Bylaw No. 7531, The Saskatoon Board of Police Commissioners Bylaw, describes the composition of the SBPC and its relationship with the City.

The Board helps identify the needs of the community when it comes to public safety and where police services could help in supporting those needs. The present mission of the SBPC is to strengthen the culture of community safety in Saskatoon.

Ideal SBPC Board Members
For service on this Board, potential candidates should bring the following core attributes, competencies, and experience:

- Understanding of the distinction between the strategic and policy setting role of the Board and the operational responsibilities of the Police Chief
- Capability to give leadership to the development of the Board and the Police Service
- Commitment to the vision, mission, values, and strategic goals of the Board
- Ability to work as a member of a team
- Respect for and tolerance of the views of others
- Recognition of the time commitment and the willingness to devote the time and energy necessary to perform the role of a Board member
- Enthusiasm and capacity for resolving challenging issues
- Knowledge and appreciation for family systems and community dynamics
- Knowledge and appreciation of Indigenous and diversified communities

The Saskatoon Board of Police Commissioners Board Member Roles and Guidelines is detailed on the Board’s website at saskatoonpolicecomission.com.

Time Commitment
Board members typically spend 10–15 hours per month, with Chairs and Vice-Chairs committing more. Meetings are held monthly (except July), usually on the third Thursday at 1:00 p.m., and include both public and in-camera sessions. Additional meetings may be scheduled as needed.

How to Apply
Help strengthen Saskatoon’s culture of community safety—apply before 5:00 p.m. on Friday, October 3, 2025. Visit the Saskatoon Board of Police Commissioners website at saskatoonpolicecommission.com

Contact the City Clerk’s Office at 306-975-3240 or email online.appointments@saskatoon.ca for more information on the application process.

City Council will consider its appointments at its December 17, 2025, Regular Business Meeting and all applicants will be notified of the status of their application following that meeting.

Note: Upon applying to this Board, your application/résumé/reference letters may be shared with current Board members as part of the review process.
