Project Name: National Aboriginal Day Celebrations

Project Date: June 21, 2017

Project Location: Victoria Park, Saskatoon SK.

What community outcomes and impact were you hoping to achieve through this event?
Explain how these were achieved.

SIMFC was able to provide a place for cultural celebrations (in Victoria Park) on National Aboriginal Day along with educating the public on the history/culture of the First Nations/Metis people. We also wanted to share with the community what reconciliation means and how we can continue to work together on this topic.

We achieved this through:

- The entertainment (First Nations/Metis entertainers) we provided.
- The MC's (Master of Ceremonies) who gave a brief description on First Nation/Metis history and what reconciliation means.
- The traditional food we served (soup and bannock).
- A Residential School Survivor Elder shared her story on stage regarding Residential Schools and how reconciliation is important to move forward.
- Our vendors that allowed the public to buy their traditional jewellery such as traditional beadwork and their designs.
- We had another event that same morning incorporated with our National Aboriginal Day celebrations this event was a "Rock Your Roots" reconciliation walk to honour and recognize Residential School Survivors and their families. This walk also represented reconciliation and how we all different groups were able to walk together and support each other.

How many attended your event?

5000+ people in attendance throughout the day.

Did you reach your target audience? How did you accomplish this?

Yes, we reached our target audience which were Aboriginal people, non-Aboriginal people, Elder's, youth and school age children. This was accomplished by communication with the school boards for getting the youth and school children involved, the Elders were given an invite, and the other's just showed up by either seeing a poster, our Facebook page, advertisement or through word of mouth.

How did you promote your event to the broader community?

We promoted this event through sending out a poster in the community (through the National Aboriginal Day planning committee), building a Facebook Page for the event, posting the information on our website and through our email contact list.

How was the Cultural Diversity and Race Relations Committee involved in your event?

One of the committee members was part of the planning committee that CUMFI hosted every other Monday. This committee member also volunteered the day of the event.

What other groups or organizations were involved in your project?

The following groups were part of the planning committee:
City of Saskatoon, The Saskatoon Police Services, Saskatoon Fire Department, CUMFI (Central Urban Metis Federation Inc.), Saskatchewan Human Rights Commission, Saskatoon Public Schools, Big Brothers, Big Sisters, The Diabetes Association, the Saskatoon Food Bank and Learning Centre, etc.

How did you promote an awareness of the Cultural Diversity and Race Relations Committee?

We promoted the City of Saskatoon Cultural Diversity and Race Relations through acknowledging them as a sponsor through the logo on our poster which was distributed throughout the community.

We also created a Facebook Page where we named City of Saskatoon Cultural Diversity and Race Relations as a sponsor to the event.

The day of the event, we had a volunteer verbally (on the mic) recognize the City of Saskatoon Cultural Diversity and Race Relations as a sponsor to the event.
