

PUBLIC MEETINGS

(*Closed meetings will be noted if there are any scheduled otherwise all meetings are open to the public.)

Effective March 19, 2020, the City has decided to close public access to City Hall and all City buildings, including fire stations, leisure facilities and Saskatoon Public Library locations. The health, safety and well-being of the public and our employees is our top priority.

Submissions providing comments and/or requesting to speak will be accepted for public meetings using the online form at Saskatoon.ca/write-letter-councilcommittees. If your submission includes a request to speak, you will be contacted by a representative from the City Clerk's Office with further information.

No final decisions may be made at closed meetings. If there are closed meetings they will be noted in the above listing.

GUIDE TO RE-OPENING

for Saskatoon Residents

Parking Restrictions & Enforcement Measures Reinstated May 25, 2020

As activity increases throughout our community with the Province's Re-Open Saskatchewan plan, the City has reinstated parking restrictions and enforcement measures as of May 25, 2020, including:

- Public Pay Parking - Customers are encouraged to use the WayToPark app to pay for parking. If the app is not an option, please ensure you follow public health guidelines when touching a FlexParking station.
- Residential Parking Program (RPP) - The City will continue to honour recently expired RPP permits until new permits are available for sale.
- Other Parking Restrictions - This includes the on-street parking time limit of 72 hours.

Matters Scheduled For Bylaw Court to Resume Monday, June 1

The Provincial Court of Saskatchewan has announced the re-opening of the Courts but there will remain in place limited access due to COVID-19 Provincial restrictions.

All City of Saskatoon scheduled bylaw matters will resume effective June 1, 2020 and if you receive a summons to appear, you should plan to attend or send someone in your place.

For those attending, there will be social distancing measures in place and limited access based on numbers. As well, please follow the recommendations regarding face masks.

For the March to May adjourned matters and the June or July scheduled trials, the City of Saskatoon will continue to review all matters and we will be in contact with you to confirm the date and time for your matter and other details.

Should you require further information, you can contact the City Solicitor's Office directly at 306-975-3270 or by email at city.solicitor@saskatoon.ca

Please visit saskatoon.ca/covid19 for timely updates from the City of Saskatoon on everything you need to know to stay safe.
