PUBLIC MEETINGS

(*Closed meetings will be noted if there are any scheduled otherwise all meetings are open to the public.)

The health, safety and well-being of the public and our employees is our top priority. We are requesting that individuals experiencing COVID-19-like symptoms not enter City facilities. Public meetings held in the Council Chamber are also broadcasted live and members of the public can view in real-time or at a later date at saskatoon.ca/meetings. The City encourages social distancing if attending public meetings. Social distancing is a term applied to certain actions that stop or slow down the spread of a highly contagious disease by restricting distance and contact between individuals. The general rule is 2 metres.

In response to COVID-19 any member of Council may attend a meeting (or portion of), via teleconference.
