All permit applications require customers to answer questions about the type of work they are applying for.

Things to know:

- After selecting the Type of Structure under the first drop down you will then select the Type of Work
- Example: If you have selected a New Home application, the Type of Work selected may be New

Type of Work		Description
Building Permits	New	Constructing a new building
	Addition	Adding onto an existing building
	Phased New	When phasing construction of a new building. Phasing is only for buildings other than ground-oriented dwellings and their accessory buildings.
	Phased Addition	When phasing an addition to an existing building. Phasing additions is only for buildings other than ground-oriented dwellings and their accessory buildings.
	Alteration/Renovation	Includes interior and exterior renovations. Interior demolitions are considered alterations.
	Conversion to	When converting an existing building to an alternative family care home
	Repair	Repairing damage to a building
	Demolition	A complete demolition to a building
	Removal	Remove a building from the site
	Relocate	Relocate a building within the same site

City of Saskatoon

Trade Permits	Plumbing	Plumbing work to be completed when a plumbing system is being constructed, changed, renewed and/or repaired

For more details regarding building and development permits please visit saskatoon.ca/buildingpermits