

Pop-Up Gallery: Saskatoon Fieldhouse – Information

The Pop-Up Gallery program provides temporary space to local emerging and established Saskatoon artists for public art exhibits. The program takes place in the lobby area of the Saskatoon Fieldhouse.

Program Goals:

- To provide opportunities to local artists for artistic expression in a civic facility
- To connect the public with the work of local artists

Applications are accepted on an on-going basis. Artists may book one exhibition per year. New exhibitions open the 1st and 16th of each month. Bookings are currently being accepted for dates between March 16, 2025 – August 31, 2025.

Priority will be given to artists from 2SLGBTQQIA+, BIPOC, people with disabilities, and other equity deserving groups and/or artists who want to exhibit work that is inspired by the Saskatoon Fieldhouse. Artwork displayed must be suitable for an all-ages civic facility.
