

With, For and About: A conversational FORUM AND WORKSHOP
to discuss Community-Engaged Arts and Social Practice with Vancouver-based arts educator Marie Lopes

Sponsored by the Public Art Advisory Committee of the City of Saskatoon
Saturday March 9, 2019, 10:00 am – 3:00 pm
Committee Room E, City Hall, Saskatoon

This free conversational forum and workshop is designed for artists and not-for-profit organizations interested in developing community-engaged and social practice arts projects in all disciplines. Building on her work as Coordinator of Arts, Culture, and Engagement responsible for the Vancouver Parks Board arts vision and direction, Marie Lopes will offer perspectives on the practicalities of organizing and supporting artist residencies and community engaged arts projects that have human connection as their focus. Participants will learn about models of collaboration and support and have an opportunity to explore possibilities for community-based arts projects within specific communities and neighbourhoods in Saskatoon. Registration in this Conversational Forum and Workshop is required by March 05, 2019. Space for 20 participants.

To register please contact: kathy.allen@saskatoon.ca

