About MUSKEG LAKE CREE NATION

“Muskeg Lake Cree Nation (MLCN) is a Plains Cree band that owns and manages a total of 35,123 acres in urban and rural lands. These lands are used for community living, agriculture, recreation and business. Muskeg Lake’s affairs are managed by the Chief and Council and informed by Cree Law. As a community, people of MLCN are proud of their Cree language, culture and heritage. During the year they have many events, as well as a cultural camp, to celebrate their culture and roots.”

HOME RESERVE INFORMATION

Location

The home reserve is located in Central Saskatchewan, 93 kilometres north of Saskatoon, and is bordered by the towns of Marcelin, Leask, and Blaine Lake. It is accessible via Highways 40, 12, and 3.

Services

The Muskeg Lake Cree Nation (MLCN) offers many programs and services to band members, and delivers them in a way that reflects a desire for a healthy community that follows Cree laws. Services offered include: housing, finance, health and wellness, social development, community justice, recreation, and economic development.

Education

Kihiw Waciston School is a First Nations elementary school that serves pre-school to grade 5 students from the community of Muskeg Lake. Cree and cultural teaching is offered to the students with the guidance of community Elders. Students then complete their education in the neighbouring community of Leask and Blaine Lake. Post-secondary support opportunities are available to eligible members.
