

The PAL Perk can be used once in the lifetime of a pet for:

- Running-at-large; or
- Both running-at-large and impound fees if incurred at the same time.

The PAL Perk will be tracked using your pet's license number.

- Valid pet license required
- The license must be purchased prior to the offense

Exceptions:

- Animals deemed dangerous by court order
- Animals acting in an aggressive manner as established by an Animal Control Officer
- Owners who have wilfully and purposely allowed their animals to run loose
