

kanātan nīpīy

(the water is clean/clean water)

Water Distribution & Collection Training Course

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES:

City of Saskatoon (or other municipalities)	Industrial plants	Provincial & federal government agencies
First Nations communities	Engineering firms	Parks
Mining, oil & gas industry	Contractors	Private utility companies

- Essential skills (4 weeks)
- Water Collection and Treatment Training Level One (2 weeks)
- Wastewater Collection and Distribution Training Level One (2 weeks)
- First Aid/CPR, WHMIS, Service Best (1 week)
- Work experience (2 weeks)

- Start date: Jan. 10, 2022
- Application deadline: Dec. 10, 2021
- FREE tuition
- Living allowances available
- Apply by emailing below requirements to kanatannipiy.project@gmail.com

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS:

- Grade 12 or GED
- Class 5 Saskatchewan Driver's Licence
- Driver Abstract (within the last 3 months)
- Resumé (includes 3 references)
- Must be Indigenous

INFO SESSION:

Learn more about this training opportunity by attending our Zoom info session on Dec. 7, 2021, from 2-3 p.m. To register, email poitrina.powder@saskatoon.ca

The Water Distribution & Collection Training Course is being delivered by Saskatchewan Polytechnic and Radius Community Centre in partnership with the Saskatoon Tribal Council, Gabriel Dumont Institute, and City of Saskatoon.

