About ENGLISH RIVER FIRST NATION

English River First Nation (ERFN) is comprised of nineteen different Reserves. Prior to signing Treaty 10, The Poplar House People resided at seven historical settlements, including: Cree Lake, Porter Island, Elak Dase, Knee Lake, Dipper Rapids, Wapachewunak, and La Plonge. The home reserves are located at Wapachewunak, near the Churchill River, and La Plonge, on the Beaver River. The river provides transportation and allows for fishing, hunting, and gathering. It also provides economic opportunities for outfitting and tourism. English River First Nation is a Dene and Cree community. ERFN has a vibrant economy with many people owning businesses or being employed through the First Nation.
